NARRATIVE

On Friday, December 7, 2018 I, Detective Dickson Woo was assigned to investigate a report of an assault by Correctional Officer Lieutenant Rashed J. Farrakhan (M/B [REDACTED]/75) on inmate Terrance D. Mason (M/B [REDACTED] 98) on November 14, 2018 at approximately 1338 hours in the Mental Health Unit (MHU) cell #1.

Detective Larell Lirette and JoAnn Donner assisted in the interviews of correctional officers that were present for the assault.

I was informed of the incident by Deputy Inspector Aaron Dobson and Captain Daniel Dittberner, who are the administrators of the Milwaukee County Jail. An inmate grievance was forwarded to them that was written by inmate Terrance Mason regarding the attack by CO Lieutenant Farrakhan. Inmate Mason's grievance stated that on November 14, 2018 at approximately 1400 hours in the MHU unit he was attacked by CO Lt. Farrakhan in his cell. CO Lt. Farrakhan had "Hit" his head against the cell wall and then he hit him in the jaw, chest, back and stomach until inmate Mason said he would behave. CO Lt. Farrakhan told him if he did not behave he would come back.

Inmate Mason has been in custody at the Milwaukee County Jail since June 12, 2018 on the charges of 1st degree Reckless Homicide, 1st degree Reckless injury and ~~REDACTED~~

Video from the Mental Health Unit on November 14, 2018 was then downloaded. The video was turned over to me by CID Lieutenant Tricia Carlson.

Review of Mental Health Unit video from 11/14/18:

A review of the video showed that at 13:39 hours inmate Mason was being escorted into cell #1 by Correctional Officer (CO) Rodney Collins, Phillip Overland and Lead CO Maurice Slocum. CO LaDonna Jones was following and CO Lt. Farrakhan behind everyone else. CO Collins was holding inmate Mason's left arm while CO Overland had his right arm. Inmate Mason was in a RIPP belt at this time. Lead CO Slocum was walking behind and holding onto the back of the RIPP belt. Inmate Mason was not wearing a shirt during this incident.

Inmate Mason was escorted to the back wall of the cell (13:39:51). CO Collins, Overland, Slocum and CO Lt. Farrakhan were with inmate Mason. CO Jones stood by the cell door behind them. CO Jones observed stepping out of the cell to give directions to someone. Movement could be observed of CO Lt. Farrakhan as he stood behind the other officers.

In the video the top view of the people in the cell is obscured by the outer wall of the subpod as they were in the back wall of the cell.

Interview of inmate Terrance D. Mason M/B [REDACTED] 98:

On Saturday, December 8, 2018 at approximately 1030 hours I interviewed inmate Terrance Mason in the visiting room on the 2nd floor of the Milwaukee County Jail. Inmate Mason is currently housed in the Mental Health Unit and was also on November 14, 2018. I informed him that I wanted to speak with him regarding the grievance he wrote on November 17, 2018 about when CO Lt. Farrakhan had struck him numerous times while they were in his cell (Cell#1) at the Mental Health Unit at the Milwaukee County Jail.

According to inmate Mason he had asked for soap and the officers refused to give him any. He then became angry and covered his cell windows. CO Captain Sobek and Lead CO Slocum removed him out of his cell and placed him on a bench. He was restrained on the bench for 2 hours. When the officers told him he had to go back into his cell, inmate Mason told them he wanted to stay on the bench. CO Lt. Farrakhan, Lead CO Slocum and Jones arrived and removed him from the bench. CO Collins and Overland escorted him to his cell. He remember CO Lt. Farrakhan coming into the cell too. He then stated that CO Collins was on his left arm and CO Overland was on his right arm.
